

Dedicated to the Red Cross.

Three Cheers for the Red Cross

Song and Chorus

Words by Maude La Tremoille-Wells

Music by George Lowell Tracy

Published by
MRS. MAUDE LATREMOILLE-WELLS
BOSTON - MASS.

THREE CHEERS FOR THE RED CROSS

Song and Chorus

Words by
MAUDE LA TREMOILLE-WELLS

Music by
GEORGE LOWELL TRACY

Tempo di Marcia, con spirito

VOICE

1. Oh! no - ble band of
2. Oh! think of those brave

PIANO

ff fz mf

nurs-es with eyes of brown or blue, Re - spond - ing to your coun - try's call, wom-en a - mid the aw - ful fight, A moth - er's care to give the lads, Faith-ful, tried and true. You come from o'er the coun - try, You come from far and Fight-ing for our right. 'Tis at the front you'll find them, They care for one and near, To help de-fend our star - ry flag that to us is so all, They march a - way from home and friends at sol - enn du - ty's dear. You care not for the dan - ger 'Nor count up - on the loss. Three call. The wound-ed sol - diers bless them As on their beds they toss. May cheers for those who risk their lives, The No - ble Grand Red Cross. Hoo - God a - bove pro - tect them all, Our No - ble Grand Red Cross.

CHORUS

f ray, Hoo - ray, they're com - ing now this way. The bands are play - ing mf ff

while they wave the flag of Bet - sy Ross. They're on their way to help to win the day. Then cheer a - gain with might and main, Our No - ble Red Cross. Hoo - Cross.

1 2
f

